Jamie invited her mother over for dinner. Jamie's mum started to wonder if there was more between Jamie and her roommate than met the eye. She had long been suspicious of her daughter's sexuality and watching them interact made her more curious. Reading her mom's thoughts, Jamie volunteered, "I know what you must be thinking, but I assure you, Sandy and I are just roommates."

About a week later, Sandy came to Jamie and said, "Ever since your mother came to dinner, I've been unable to find my favourite gravy ladle. You don't suppose she took it, do you?"

Jamie said, "Well, I doubt it, but I'll write her a letter just to be sure." So she sat down and wrote: "Dear Mother, I'm not saying you 'did' take a gravy ladle from my house, and I'm not saying you 'did not' take a gravy ladle. But the fact remains that one has been missing ever since you were here for dinner."

Several days later, Jamie received a letter from her mother that read: "Dear Daughter, I'm not saying that you 'do' sleep with Sandy, and I'm not saying that you 'do not' sleep with Sandy. But the fact remains that if she was sleeping in her own bed, she would have found the gravy ladle by now."

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

March has been a very busy time for me with moving and renovating but we managed to have a week away with peace and quietness in Victoria. Unfortunately I was not able to be present at the social days.

It is with great pleasure that we welcome two new Committee Members. Many thanks Kristin and Toni for your support.

We had a good attendance at the dance at our new venue while the Nerang RSL is having a face lift. I believe that our members and friends were quite surprised by how suitable the venue was for Feathers. There will be three dances during the year when the dance will be on the 4th Saturday of the month. This is due to the Kirra Sports Club having previous bookings on the 3rd Saturday.

So, please take note that our MAY JUNE and OCTOBER dances will be on the 4th Saturday.

There were many new faces at the dance and I hope everyone had a great evening. We look forward to seeing you again at our upcoming dances.

The luncheons on the second Wednesday of the month are being well supported. Due to this we are going to do a trail period by booking a table with no RSVP required. Unfortunately the weather for the kayak was not the best which resulted in limited the numbers on the day. Cheers Jan
