SOCIAL MEDIA CODE OF CONDUCT

We are a small, social community that is growing day by day. We hope you enjoy your time here as much as we do.

Feathers Women's Social Club Inc (Feathers Inc) is a diverse group set up to bring women who love women together for chat and social engagement. As mentioned above, we nurture a community culture here, so if that is not for you, please don't join. This is a free site run by volunteers. We have a few logical rules that all members need to abide by:

1. GOLDEN RULE: We are a minority group made up of members who identify as women who love women, we come from all walks of life, with varying paths that have brought us to here. The one thing we have in common is that we love women. If we don't support each other then who will?
2. Play nice. Please do not insult other members. All comments should be written with the view that anyone on this site can read and not feel threatened or offended. For example, we don't go around swearing at others because they're an ex or because we don't like their opinions.
3. Posts on Feathers Inc must not contain malicious name-calling, intimidation, belligerence or derogatory comments aimed directly or indirectly at other members.
4. No comments are to be made that are degrading, racist, against disability be it physical or people with mental health issues or incite hate.
5. Members of varying identities are ultimately here because of our sexual attraction to women, not men. Some members, Lesbian & Bisexual may display photos of their son's, brothers, nephews, etc. Don't jump to conclusions if this includes their profile picture. Enquire politely or refer to Admin if this bothers you.
6. If a post does not appeal to your philosophies skip it & go to another discussion. If you wish to debate, do so without attacking a member's character – STAY ON TOPIC.
7. Obscene language and nude photos are DISALLOWED as per FACEBOOK group rules.
8. Cyber-slander & bullying are illegal & won't be tolerated on Feathers Inc. If you feel you are being harassed by another member and it cannot be sorted, please BLOCK the person who is harassing you and report it to the committee/administrator so we can monitor comments on Feathers Inc. We will only engage or give advice if this becomes a Feathers Inc issue. If you feel you're being targeted by a group of members, also let Admin know.
9. Please don't send friend requests to other Feathers Inc members unless it is a mutual feeling because refusal may offend. REMEMBER: someone's Facebook is their private page & some members wish to keep it that way.
10. Anyone who blocks a Committee Member/Administrator will be removed, unless there's a pre discussed genuine reason to block a Committee Member/Administrator. This rule applies to Committee Member/Administrator team as well with blocking other members.
11. If a complaint is made, admin will discuss it together & pose a resolution. This may be simply reminding the member or group about our guidelines and community culture, asking a member to retract whatever may have been said, or asking them to leave the site.
12. Continued breaches of these guidelines after an initial warning/suggested resolution will result in removal from the site.
13. Our admin team have final say in all matters.
