PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Hi fellow Feathers Members. I hope you all had a good festive season. Feathers has an exciting program for the year. We kicked off with our Australia Day celebration and activities. (see report below) Great social activities during the year include: March 9th Kayaking, April 25th Anzac Day, May 9-11 camping weekend (does anyone know of a good camping site that allows dogs?) and Xmas in July with wine tasting and dinner at Mt Tamborine. If you have any other suggestion would please let me know. Please contact Jan or a Committee Member.

Our February dance will be held in our temporary venue at the Commercial Hotel, Price Street Nerang. This is for February dance only. The Committee has been endeavoring to search out a venue that is affordable and meets our needs, until we get back to the Nerang RSL. These needs are - cost effective, dance floor, private and comfortable. We have looked at many venues with a maximum hiring price of $360 and below. Most venues we looked at were not private or did they have a dance floor. The Kirra Sports Club meets all our requirements. After 8.00 pm we have all the upstairs area which includes the function room and restaurant area (which closes at 8.00 pm) with a bar and an outside balcony for the smokers. There is a dance floor much larger than the one at the RSL. With location the only worry we have decided still to go with the Kirra venue, until we return to the Nerang RSL. Kirra Sports Club is close to the M1 and the Gold Coast Highway.

Aussie day - What a great day. 28 Feathers members and guests enjoyed their celebrations at Debbie and Jean's home. Many thanks are extended to them for opening their home to Feathers once again. What an amazing venue for such a day! We commenced with a game of Australian Trivial Pursuit with the winners being Iris and Golda with a grand total of 15.5, but I won't say out of how many. Jean attended to the BBQ being the chief chef for the day. A great luncheon was supplied by Feathers and once again a big thank you to Jean. During lunch we celebrated with their anniversary with Joan & Jude who met at a Feathers Australian Day function 11 years ago. Lee was the lucky winner of the door prize. After a bit more chatting we commenced a few games. The obstacle course was a dead heat of 11 strokes between Julie and Marilyn. The horse shoe throwing competition was won by Inge by landing one shoe around the peg. Throwing at the bottle of wine was also won by Inge by missing the bottle by only a few centimetres.
