INTERESTING ANIMAL FACTS

* The stonefish, which lives off the coast of Australia, is the most poisonous fish in the world.
* Birds save energy by flying in a "V" formation. * Elephants purr like cats do, as a means of communication. * A rabbit is not able to vomit. * Cows can sleep standing up. * A female seahorse lets her husband store her babies inside his stomach. * The chameleon has a tongue that is 1.5 times the length of its body. * The fastest bird is the peregrine falcon. It can fly at a speed of 168-217 miles per hour. * A cat has 32 muscles in each ear. * Cats can make over 100 vocal sounds, while dogs can only make 10. * Camels have three sets of eyelids. * Bats always turn left when they leave their caves. * Tigers have striped skin, not just striped fur. * Female lions do 90% of the hunting. * Flamingos can only eat with their heads upside down. * Only one mammal can't jump — the elephant.

IT'S THAT TIME OF YEAR AGAIN

Important information for members

We need to start thinking about our next active COMMITTEE for Feathers. All positions become vacant at the AGM in August so we need a new Committee of pro-active women who can lead Feathers through our 24th year. Nomination forms can be printed from our website or collected from the committee members on the door at our dance.

Once completed and signed by all parties the forms can be emailed to:

info@feathersgc.com
or to Jan
jcu30083@bigpond.net.au

or posted to:
Feathers Women's Social Club Inc
PO Box 415

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

What a great achievement and a special dance to celebrate Feathers 23rd year. We are now one of the longest running lesbian clubs in the world. There is some hint that we may be the longest. So it will be up to our Members to see Feathers to 25 years and beyond. What a fabulous evening we all had. Guest artist Katie Who provided a good choice of songs, and as always the dance floor was stacked for the music by DJ Jan.

The number at our movie evening was a little disappointing but the girls who were present enjoyed a loving lesbian story with a happy ending. The series "The Orange is the New Black" episode 1 wetted our appetite to see the whole series. We will be showing them later in the year over a period of 2 evenings. Thanks to Shellie and Sharee for their time and providing the movies for the evening. There is another Pizza and Movie night in our planner as Sharee and Shellie have some more films worth seeing. Jan
